MILTON YOUTH SOCCER

Scholarship Application

Dear Parent:

The Milton Youth Soccer Program has a scholarship program for families with financial need. The aim of this program is provide financial assistance to families in the community so that their children are able to participate in the local soccer program. We understand the sensitivity required in this area and it is our priority to ensure the strictest of confidentiality regarding a scholarship request submitted to our board. Guidelines:

- If you are in financial need and unable to cover the registration costs associated with the soccer program, you may fill out the attached application.
- Please place the application form in a separate envelope and submit it with your soccer registration.
- If mailed, the scholarship application must be postmarked prior to June 30, 2010.
- The registrar will receive and number the top and bottom portion of the application. The top portion containing the name and address information will be removed and kept by the registrar. The registrar will provide the board with only the bottom portion of the application.
- The Scholarship Committee of the board will meet to determine who will be awarded scholarships and the dollar amount to be rewarded. Amounts and numbers of scholarships awarded are determined by the amount of money budgeted for scholarships for that session, the number of requests received and the total dollar amount of requests received.
- Invoice for program fees will be modified to reflect scholarship amount. The registrar and treasurer will be the only members who will know the names of the applicants.

If you have any questions regarding the scholarship application process, please feel free to contact any member of the Milton Youth Soccer Board.

Sincerely,

Milton Youth Soccer Board
